7 senses in any other manner;

8 (ii) films, sound recordings, videotapes,
9 books, and other similar property embodying words, ideas, concepts,
10 images, or sound by the creator of the property for which, as costs
11 are incurred in producing the property, it is intended or is 12 reasonably likely that any tangible medium in which the property is 13 embodied will be mass-distributed by the creator or any one or more
14 third parties in a form that is not substantially altered; and

15 (iii) a computer program, as defined by 16 Section 151.0031.

21 (b) Subject to Section 171.1014, a taxable entity that
22 elects to subtract cost of goods sold for the purpose of computing
23 its taxable margin shall determine the amount of that cost of goods
24 sold as provided by this section.

25 (c) The cost of goods sold includes all direct costs of 26 acquiring or producing the goods, including:

27 (1) labor costs;

1 (2) cost of materials that are an integral part of
2 specific property produced;

3 (3) cost of materials that are consumed in the 18 facilities, or real property directly used for the production of 19 the goods, including pollution control devices;

1 direct cost of production;

2 (12) the cost of producing or acquiring electricity
3 sold; and

4 (13) a contribution to a partnership in which the
5 taxable entity owns an interest that is used to fund activities, the 6 costs of which would otherwise be treated as cost of goods sold of 7 the partnership, but only to the extent that those costs are related 8 to goods distributed to the taxable entity as goods-in-kind in the 9 ordinary course of production activities rather than being sold.

10 (d) In addition to the amounts includible under Subsection
11 (c), the cost of goods sold includes the following costs in relation 12 to the taxable entity's goods:

13 (1) deterioration of the goods;

14 (2) obsolescence of the goods;

19 costs of purchasing the goods and of storage and handling the goods,
20 as provided by Subsections (c)(4) and (c)(5);

21 (5) postproduction direct costs allocable to the 22 property, including storage and handling costs, as provided by
23 Subsections (c)(4) and (c)(5);

4 directly allocable to the production of the goods; and

5 (10) licensing or franchise costs, including fees
6 incurred in securing the contractual right to use a trademark,
7 corporate plan, manufacturing procedure, special recipe, or other
8 similar right directly associated with the goods produced.

9 (e) The cost of goods sold does not include the following
10 costs in relation to the taxable entity's goods:

11 (1) the cost of renting or leasing equipment,
12 facilities, or real property that is not used for the production of 13 the goods;

24 incurred in the solicitation of contracts not awarded to the
25 taxable entity;

26 (9) interest, including interest on debt incurred or 27 continued during the production period to finance the production of

1 the goods;

2 (10) income taxes, including local, state, federal,
3 and foreign income taxes, and franchise taxes that are assessed on 4 the taxable entity based on income;

5 (11) strike expenses, including costs associated with
6 hiring employees to replace striking personnel, but not including
7 the wages of the replacement personnel, costs of security, and
8 legal fees associated with settling strikes; and

9 (12) officers' compensation.

10 (f) A taxable entity may subtract as a cost of goods sold
11 indirect or administrative overhead costs, including all mixed
12 service costs, such as security services, legal services, data
13 processing services, accounting services, personnel operations,
14 and general financial planning and financial management costs, that 15 it can demonstrate are allocable to the acquisition or production
16 of goods, except that the amount subtracted may not exceed four 17 percent of the taxable entity's total indirect or administrative 18 overhead costs, including all mixed service costs. Any costs
19 excluded under Subsection (e) may not be subtracted under this 20 subsection.

21 (g) A taxable entity that is allowed a subtraction by this
22 section for a cost of goods sold and that is subject to Section
23 263A, 460, or 471, Internal Revenue Code, shall capitalize that
24 cost in the same manner and to the same extent that the taxable
25 entity is required or allowed to capitalize the cost under federal 26 law and regulations, except for costs excluded under Subsection
27 (e), or in accordance with Subsections (c), (d), and (f).

1 (h) A taxable entity shall determine its cost of goods sold,
2 except as otherwise provided by this section, in accordance with
3 the methods permitted by federal statutes and regulations. This
4 subsection does not affect the type or category of cost of goods
5 sold that may be subtracted under this section.

6 (i) A taxable entity may make a subtraction under this
7 section in relation to the cost of goods sold only if that entity
8 owns the goods. The determination of whether a taxable entity is an 9 owner is based on all of the facts and circumstances, including the 10 various benefits and burdens of ownership vested with the taxable
11 entity. A taxable entity furnishing labor or materials to a project
12 for the construction, improvement, remodeling, or repair of real 13 property is considered to be an owner of that labor or materials and 14 may include those costs in the computation of cost of goods sold.
15 Solely for purposes of this section, a taxable entity shall be 16 treated as the owner of goods being manufactured or produced by the 17 entity under a contract with the federal government, including any 18 subcontracts that support a contract with the federal government,
19 notwithstanding that the Federal Acquisition Regulation may 20 require that title or risk of loss with respect to those goods be 21 transferred to the federal government before the manufacture or 22 production of those goods is complete.

23 (j) A taxable entity may not make a subtraction under this
24 section for cost of goods sold to the extent the cost of goods sold
25 was funded by partner contributions and deducted under Subsection
26 (c)(13).

27 (k) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if

1 the taxable entity is a lending institution that offers loans to the 2 public and elects to subtract cost of goods sold, the entity may
3 subtract as a cost of goods sold an amount equal to interest
4 expense.

5 (l) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a
6 payment made by one member of an affiliated group to another member
7 of that affiliated group not included in the combined group may be
8 subtracted as a cost of goods sold only if it is a transaction made
9 at arm's length.

10 (m) In this section, "arm's length" means the standard of 11 conduct under which entities that are not related parties and that 12 have substantially equal bargaining power, each acting in its own
13 interest, would negotiate or carry out a particular transaction.

14 (n) In this section, "related party" means a person,
15 corporation, or other entity, including an entity that is treated
16 as a pass-through or disregarded entity for purposes of federal 17 taxation, whether the person, corporation, or entity is subject to 18 the tax under this chapter or not, in which one person, corporation,
19 or entity, or set of related persons, corporations, or entities,
20 directly or indirectly owns or controls a controlling interest in 21 another entity.

22 Sec. 171.1013. DETERMINATION OF COMPENSATION. (a) Except 23 as otherwise provided by this section, "wages and cash
24 compensation" means the amount entered in the Medicare wages and
25 tips box of Internal Revenue Service Form W-2 or any subsequent form
26 with a different number or designation that substantially provides 27 the same information. The term includes:

1 (1) net distributive income from partnerships and
2 trusts and from limited liability companies and S corporations
3 treated as partnerships for federal income tax purposes, but only
4 if the person receiving the distribution is a natural person; and

5 (2) stock awards and stock options deducted for 6 federal income tax purposes.

7 (b) Subject to Section 171.1014, a taxable entity that
8 elects to subtract compensation for the purpose of computing its 9 taxable margin under Section 171.101 may subtract an amount equal
10 to:

11 (1) subject to the limitation in Subsection (c), all
12 wages and cash compensation paid by the taxable entity to its 13 officers, directors, owners, partners, and employees; and

14 (2) the cost of all benefits the taxable entity
15 provides to its officers, directors, owners, partners, and
16 employees, including workers' compensation benefits, health care,
17 and retirement to the extent deductible for federal income tax
18 purposes.

19 (c) Notwithstanding the actual amount of wages and cash
20 compensation paid by a taxable entity to its officers, directors,
21 owners, partners, and employees, a taxable entity may not include
22 more than $300,000, or the amount determined under Section 171.006,
23 for any person in the amount of wages and cash compensation it
24 determines under Section 171.101.

25 (d) A taxable entity that is a staff leasing services
26 company:

27 (1) may not include as wages or cash compensation

1 payments described by Section 171.1011(k); and

2 (2) shall determine compensation as provided by this
3 section only for the taxable entity's own employees that are not
4 assigned employees.

5 (e) Subject to the other provisions of this section, in 6 determining compensation, a taxable entity that is a client company
7 that contracts with a staff leasing services company for assigned
8 employees:

9 (1) shall include payments made to the staff leasing
10 services company for wages and benefits for the assigned employees
11 as if the assigned employees were actual employees of the entity;

12 (2) may not include an administrative fee charged by 13 the staff leasing services company for the provision of the 14 assigned employees; and

15 (3) may not include any other amount in relation to the 16 assigned employees, including payroll taxes.

17 Sec. 171.1014. COMBINED REPORTING; AFFILIATED GROUP
18 ENGAGED IN UNITARY BUSINESS. (a) Taxable entities that are part of 19 an affiliated group engaged in a unitary business shall file a
20 combined group report in lieu of individual reports based on the 21 combined group's business. The combined group may not include a
22 taxable entity that conducts business outside the United States if 23 80 percent or more of the taxable entity's property and payroll, as 24 determined by factoring under Chapter 141, are assigned to 25 locations outside the United States. In applying Chapter 141, if 26 either the property factor or the payroll factor is zero, the 27 denominator is one. The combined group may not include a taxable

1 entity that conducts business outside the United States and has no
2 property or payroll if 80 percent or more of the taxable entity's
3 gross receipts, as determined under Sections 171.103, 171.105, and
4 171.1055, are assigned to locations outside the United States.

5 (b) The combined group is a single taxable entity for 6 purposes of the application of the tax imposed under this chapter.

7 (c) For purposes of Section 171.101, a combined group shall
8 determine its total revenue by:

9 (1) determining the total revenue of each of its
10 members as provided by Section 171.1011 as if the member were an
11 individual taxable entity;

12 (2) adding the total revenues of the members
13 determined under Subdivision (1) together; and

14 (3) subtracting, to the extent included under Section
15 171.1011(c)(1)(A), (c)(2)(A), or (c)(3), items of total revenue
16 received from a member of the combined group.

17 (d) For purposes of Section 171.101, a combined group shall 18 make an election to subtract either cost of goods sold or 19 compensation that applies to all of its members.

20 (e) For purposes of Section 171.101, a combined group that
21 elects to subtract costs of goods sold shall determine that amount 22 by:

23 (1) determining the cost of goods sold for each of its 24 members as provided by Section 171.1012 as if the member were an
25 individual taxable entity;

26 (2) adding the amounts of cost of goods sold
27 determined under Subdivision (1) together; and

1 (3) subtracting from the amount determined under
2 Subdivision (2) any cost of goods sold amounts paid from one member
3 of the combined group to another member of the combined group, but 4 only to the extent the corresponding item of total revenue was
5 subtracted under Subsection (c)(3).

6 (f) For purposes of Section 171.101, a combined group that
7 elects to subtract compensation shall determine that amount by:

8 (1) determining the compensation for each of its
9 members as provided by Section 171.1013 as if each member were an
10 individual taxable entity;

11 (2) adding the amounts of compensation determined
12 under Subdivision (1) together; and

13 (3) subtracting from the amount determined under
14 Subdivision (2) any compensation amounts paid from one member of 15 the combined group to another member of the combined group, but only 16 to the extent the corresponding item of total revenue was
17 subtracted under Subsection (c)(3).

18 (g) A combined group may elect to include in the combined
19 group an exempt entity that would be included in the group if the 20 entity were not exempt and to treat the exempt entity as if it were a
21 taxable entity.

16 Sec. 171.1055. EXCLUSION OF CERTAIN RECEIPTS FOR MARGIN
17 APPORTIONMENT. (a) In apportioning margin, receipts excluded from 18 total revenue by a taxable entity under Section 171.1011 may not be

24 ~~Subsections (c) and (d), a corporation's taxable capital is~~
25 ~~apportioned to this state to determine the amount of the tax imposed~~

27 ~~taxable capital by a fraction, the numerator of which is the~~

1 ~~corporation's gross receipts from business done in this state, as~~
 2 ~~determined under Section 171.103, and the denominator of which is~~

5 ~~[(b)]~~ Except as provided by this section [~~Subsections (c)~~

 9 margin [~~taxable earned surplus~~] by a fraction, the numerator of 10 which is the taxable entity's [~~corporation's~~] gross receipts from 11 business done in this state, as determined under Section 171.103
 12 [~~171.1032~~], and the denominator of which is the taxable entity's 13 [~~corporation's~~] gross receipts from its entire business, as 14 determined under Section 171.105 [~~171.1051~~].

15 (b) [~~(c)~~] A taxable entity's margin [~~corporation's taxable~~
 16 ~~capital or earned surplus~~] that is derived, directly or indirectly,
 17 from the sale of management, distribution, or administration
 18 services to or on behalf of a regulated investment company,
 19 including a taxable entity [~~corporation~~] that includes trustees or 20 sponsors of employee benefit plans that have accounts in a
 21 regulated investment company, is apportioned to this state to 22 determine the amount of the tax imposed under Section 171.002 by 23 multiplying the taxable entity's [~~corporation's~~] total margin
 24 [~~taxable capital or earned surplus~~] from the sale of services to or 25 on behalf of a regulated investment company by a fraction, the 26 numerator of which is the average of the sum of shares owned at the 27 beginning of the year and the sum of shares owned at the end of the

1 year by the investment company shareholders who are commercially
2 domiciled in this state or, if the shareholders are individuals,
3 are residents of this state, and the denominator of which is the
4 average of the sum of shares owned at the beginning of the year and
5 the sum of shares owned at the end of the year by all investment
6 company shareholders. [~~The corporation shall make a separate~~
7 ~~computation to allocate taxable capital and earned surplus.~~] In 8 this subsection, "regulated investment company" has the meaning
9 assigned by Section 851(a), Internal Revenue Code.

10 (c) [~~(d)~~] A taxable entity's margin [~~corporation's taxable~~
11 ~~capital or taxable earned surplus~~] that is derived, directly or 12 indirectly, from the sale of management, administration, or
13 investment services to an employee retirement plan is apportioned
14 to this state to determine the amount of the tax imposed under 15 Section 171.002 by multiplying the taxable entity's [~~corporation's~~ 16 total margin [~~taxable capital or earned surplus~~] from the sale of 17 services to an employee retirement plan company by a fraction, the 18 numerator of which is the average of the sum of beneficiaries
19 domiciled in Texas at the beginning of the year and the sum of 20 beneficiaries domiciled in Texas at the end of the year, and the 21 denominator of which is the average of the sum of all beneficiaries
22 at the beginning of the year and the sum of all beneficiaries at the 23 end of the year. [~~The corporation shall make a separate computation~~
24 ~~to apportion taxable capital and earned surplus.~~] In this section,
25 "employee retirement plan" means a plan or other arrangement that
26 is qualified under Section 401(a), Internal Revenue Code, or
27 satisfies the requirements of Section 403, Internal Revenue Code,

1 or a government plan described in Section 414(d), Internal Revenue
2 Code. The term does not include an individual retirement account or 3 individual retirement annuity within the meaning of Section 408,

2 Sec. 171.107. DEDUCTION OF COST OF SOLAR ENERGY DEVICE FROM
3 MARGIN [~~TAXABLE CAPITAL OR TAXABLE EARNED SURPLUS~~] APPORTIONED TO
4 THIS STATE. (a) In this section, "solar energy device" means a
5 system or series of mechanisms designed primarily to provide
6 heating or cooling or to produce electrical or mechanical power by
7 collecting and transferring solar-generated energy. The term
8 includes a mechanical or chemical device that has the ability to 9 store solar-generated energy for use in heating or cooling or in the 10 production of power.

11 (b) A taxable entity [~~corporation~~] may deduct from [~~its~~
12 ~~apportioned taxable capital the amortized cost of a solar energy~~
13 ~~device or from~~] its apportioned margin [~~taxable earned surplus~~] 10
14 percent of the amortized cost of a solar energy device if:

15 (1) the device is acquired by the taxable entity
16 [~~corporation~~] for heating or cooling or for the production of 17 power;

18 (2) the device is used in this state by the taxable
19 entity [~~corporation~~]; and

20 (3) the cost of the device is amortized in accordance 21 with Subsection (c) [~~of this section~~].

22 (c) The amortization of the cost of a solar energy device
23 must:

24 (1) be for a period of at least 60 months;

25 (2) provide for equal monthly amounts;

26 (3) begin on the month in which the device is placed in 27 service in this state; and

1 (4) cover only a period in which the device is in use
2 in this state.

3 (d) A taxable entity [~~corporation~~] that makes a deduction
4 under this section shall file with the comptroller an amortization

6 the request of the comptroller, the taxable entity [~~corporation~~]
7 shall file with the comptroller proof of the cost of the solar
8 energy device or proof of the device's operation in this state.

9 ~~[(e) A corporation may elect to make the deduction

11 or apportioned taxable earned surplus for each separate regular 12 annual period. An election for an initial period applies to the 13 second tax period and to the first regular annual period.]~~

14 Sec. 171.108. DEDUCTION OF COST OF CLEAN COAL PROJECT FROM 15 MARGIN [~~TAXABLE CAPITAL OR TAXABLE EARNED SURPLUS~~] APPORTIONED TO 16 THIS STATE. (a) In this section, "clean coal project" has the 17 meaning assigned by Section 5.001, Water Code.

18 (b) A taxable entity [~~corporation~~] may deduct from its
19 apportioned margin [~~taxable capital the amortized cost of equipment
20 or from its apportioned taxable earned surplus~~] 10 percent of the 21 amortized cost of equipment:

22 (1) that is used in a clean coal project;

23 (2) that is acquired by the taxable entity
24 [~~corporation~~] for use in generation of electricity, production of 25 process steam, or industrial production;

26 (3) that the taxable entity [~~corporation~~] uses in this
27 state; and

1 (4) the cost of which is amortized in accordance with
2 Subsection (c).

3 (c) The amortization of the cost of capital used in a clean
4 coal project must:

5 (1) be for a period of at least 60 months;

6 (2) provide for equal monthly amounts;

7 (3) begin in the month during which the equipment is 8 placed in service in this state; and

9 (4) cover only a period during which the equipment is 10 used in this state.

11 (d) A taxable entity [~~corporation~~] that makes a deduction
12 under this section shall file with the comptroller an amortization
13 schedule showing the period for which the deduction is to be made.
14 On the request of the comptroller, the taxable entity [~~corporation~~]
15 shall file with the comptroller proof of the cost of the equipment
16 or proof of the equipment's operation in this state.

17 ~~[(c) A corporation may elect to make the deduction~~
18 ~~authorized by this section from apportioned taxable capital or~~
19 ~~apportioned taxable earned surplus, but not from both, for each~~
20 ~~separate regular annual period. An election for an initial period~~
21 ~~applies to the second tax period and to the first regular annual~~
22 ~~period.~~

23 ~~[Sec. 171.109. SURPLUS. (a) In this chapter:~~

24 ~~[(1) "Surplus" means the net assets of a corporation~~
25 ~~minus its stated capital. For a limited liability company,~~
26 ~~"surplus" means the net assets of the company minus its members'~~
27 ~~contributions. Surplus includes unrealized, estimated, or~~

1 ~~contingent losses or obligations or any writedown of assets other~~
2 ~~than those listed in Subsection (i) of this section net of~~
3 ~~appropriate income tax provisions. The definition under this~~
4 ~~subdivision does not apply to earned surplus.~~

5 ~~[(2) "Net assets" means the total assets of a~~
6 ~~corporation minus its total debts.~~

7 ~~[(3) "Debt" means any legally enforceable obligation~~
8 ~~measured in a certain amount of money which must be performed or~~
9 ~~paid within an ascertainable period of time or on demand.~~

10 ~~[(a-1) A legally enforceable obligation that requires the~~
11 ~~return of a like-kind property that was borrowed will be considered~~
12 ~~debt if it is a liability according to generally accepted~~
13 ~~accounting principles and if the return must be made within an~~
14 ~~ascertainable period of time or on demand. The amount that will be~~ 15 ~~considered debt is the fair market value measured on the last day on~~
16 ~~which the report is based as required by Section 171.153. For~~
17 ~~purposes of this subsection, "like-kind property" means the same~~
18 ~~quantity, quality, and nature or character as the property~~
19 ~~borrowed.~~

20 ~~[(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a~~
21 ~~corporation must compute its surplus, assets, and debts according~~
22 ~~to generally accepted accounting principles. If generally accepted~~
23 ~~accounting principles are unsettled or do not specify an accounting~~
24 ~~practice for a particular purpose related to the computation of~~
25 ~~surplus, assets, or debts, the comptroller by rule may establish~~
26 ~~rules to specify the applicable accounting practice for that~~ 27 ~~purpose.~~

1 ~~[(c) A corporation whose taxable capital is less than $1~~
2 ~~million may report its surplus according to the method used in the~~
3 ~~corporation's most recent federal income tax return originally due~~
4 ~~on or before the date on which the corporation's franchise tax~~
5 ~~report is originally due. In determining if taxable capital is less~~
6 ~~than $1 million, the corporation shall apply the methods the~~
7 ~~corporation used in computing that federal income tax return unless~~
8 ~~another method is required under this chapter.~~

9 ~~[(d) A corporation shall report its surplus based solely on~~
10 ~~its own financial condition. Consolidated reporting of surplus is~~
11 ~~prohibited.~~

12 ~~[(e) Unless the provisions of Section 171.111 apply due to~~
13 ~~an election under that section, a corporation may not change the~~
14 ~~accounting methods used to compute its surplus more often than once~~
15 ~~every four years without the written consent of the comptroller. A~~
16 ~~change in accounting methods is not justified solely because it~~
17 ~~results in a reduction of tax liability.~~

18 ~~[(f) A corporation declaring dividends shall exclude those~~
19 ~~dividends from its taxable capital, and a corporation receiving~~
20 ~~dividends shall include those dividends in its gross receipts and~~ 21 ~~taxable capital as of the earlier of:~~

22 ~~[(1) the date the dividends are declared, if the~~
23 ~~dividends are actually paid within one year after the declaration~~ 24 ~~date, or~~

25 ~~[(2) the date the dividends are actually paid.~~

26 ~~[(g) All oil and gas exploration and production activities~~
27 ~~conducted by a corporation that reports its surplus according to~~

1 ~~generally accepted accounting principles as required or permitted~~
2 ~~by this chapter must be reported according to the successful~~
3 ~~efforts or the full cost method of accounting.~~

4 ~~[(h) A parent or investor corporation must use the cost~~
5 ~~method of accounting in reporting and calculating the franchise tax~~
6 ~~on its investments in subsidiary corporations or other investees.~~
7 ~~The retained earnings of a subsidiary corporation or other investee~~
8 ~~before acquisition by the parent or investor corporation may not be~~
9 ~~excluded from the cost of the subsidiary corporation or investee to~~
10 ~~the parent or investor corporation and must be included by the~~
11 ~~parent or investor corporation in calculating its surplus.~~

12 ~~[(i) The following accounts may also be excluded from~~
13 ~~surplus, to the extent they are in conformance with generally~~
14 ~~accepted accounting principles or the appropriate federal income~~
15 ~~tax method, whichever is applicable:~~

16 ~~[(1) a reserve or allowance for uncollectable~~
17 ~~accounts, and~~

18 ~~[(2) a contra-asset account for depletion,~~
19 ~~depreciation, or amortization.~~

20 ~~[(j) A corporation may not exclude from surplus:~~

21 ~~[(1) liabilities for compensation and other benefits~~
22 ~~provided to employees, other than wages, that are not debt as of the~~
23 ~~end of the accounting period on which the taxable capital component~~
24 ~~is based, including retirement, medical, insurance,~~
25 ~~postretirement, and other similar benefits, and~~

26 ~~[(2) deferred investment tax credits.~~

27 ~~[(k) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter, a~~

1 ~~corporation subject to the tax imposed by this chapter shall use~~
2 ~~double entry bookkeeping to account for all transactions that~~
3 ~~affect the computation of that tax.~~

4 ~~[(1) The "first in=first out" and "last in=first out"~~
5 ~~methods of accounting are acceptable methods for computing surplus.~~

6 ~~[(m) A corporation may not use the push-down method of~~
7 ~~accounting in computing or reporting its surplus.~~

8 ~~[(n) A corporation must use the equity method of accounting~~
9 ~~when reporting an investment in a partnership or joint venture.~~

10 ~~[Sec. 171.110. DETERMINATION OF NET TAXABLE EARNED SURPLUS.~~

11 ~~(a) The net taxable earned surplus of a corporation is computed by:~~

12 ~~[(1) determining the corporation's reportable federal~~
13 ~~taxable income, subtracting from that amount any amount excludable~~
14 ~~under Subsection (k), any amount included in reportable federal~~ 15 ~~taxable income under Section 78 or Sections 951-964, Internal~~
16 ~~Revenue Code, and dividends received from a subsidiary, associate,~~
17 ~~or affiliated corporation that does not transact a substantial~~
18 ~~portion of its business or regularly maintain a substantial portion~~
19 ~~of its assets in the United States, and adding to that amount any~~ 20 ~~compensation of officers or directors, or if a bank, any~~
21 ~~compensation of directors and executive officers, to the extent~~
22 ~~excluded in determining federal taxable income to determine the~~ 23 ~~corporation's taxable earned surplus,~~

24 ~~[(2) apportioning the corporation's taxable earned~~
25 ~~surplus to this state as provided by Section 171.106(b) or (c), as~~
26 ~~applicable, to determine the corporation's apportioned taxable~~
27 ~~earned surplus,~~

1 ~~[(3) adding the corporation's taxable earned surplus~~
2 ~~allocated to this state as provided by Section 171.1061; and~~

3 ~~[(4) subtracting from that amount any allowable~~
4 ~~deductions and any business loss that is carried forward to the tax~~
5 ~~reporting period and deductible under Subsection (c).]~~

6 ~~[(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), a corporation is~~
7 ~~not required to add the compensation of officers or directors as~~
8 ~~required by Subsection (a)(1) if the corporation is:~~

9 ~~[(1) a corporation that has not more than 35~~
10 ~~shareholders; or~~

11 ~~[(2) an S corporation, as that term is defined by~~
12 ~~Section 1361, Internal Revenue Code.]~~

13 ~~[(c) A subsidiary corporation may not claim the exclusion~~
14 ~~under Subsection (b) if it has a parent corporation that does not~~
15 ~~qualify for the exclusion. For purposes of this subsection, a~~
16 ~~corporation qualifies as a parent if it ultimately controls the~~
17 ~~subsidiary, even if the control arises through a series or group of~~
18 ~~other subsidiaries or entities. Control is presumed if a parent~~
19 ~~corporation directly or indirectly owns, controls, or holds a~~
20 ~~majority of the outstanding voting stock of a corporation or~~ 21 ~~ownership interests in another entity.]~~

22 ~~[(d) A corporation's reportable federal taxable income is~~
23 ~~the corporation's federal taxable income after Schedule C special~~
24 ~~deductions and before net operating loss deductions as computed~~
25 ~~under the Internal Revenue Code, except that an S corporation's~~
26 ~~reportable federal taxable income is the amount of the income~~
27 ~~reportable to the Internal Revenue Service as taxable to the~~

1 ~~corporation's shareholders.~~

2 ~~[(c) For purposes of this section, a business loss is any~~
3 ~~negative amount after apportionment and allocation. The business~~
4 ~~loss shall be carried forward to the year succeeding the loss year~~
5 ~~as a deduction to net taxable earned surplus, then successively to~~
6 ~~the succeeding four taxable years after the loss year or until the~~
7 ~~loss is exhausted, whichever occurs first, but for not more than~~
8 ~~five taxable years after the loss year. Notwithstanding the~~
9 ~~preceding sentence, a business loss from a tax year that ends before~~
10 ~~January 1, 1991, may not be used to reduce net taxable earned~~
11 ~~surplus. A business loss can be carried forward only by the~~ 12 ~~corporation that incurred the loss and cannot be transferred to or~~ 13 ~~claimed by any other entity, including the survivor of a merger if~~ 14 ~~the loss was incurred by the corporation that did not survive the~~ 15 ~~merger.~~

16 ~~[(f) A corporation may use either the "first in-first out"~~
17 ~~or "last in-first out" method of accounting to compute its net~~
18 ~~taxable earned surplus, but only to the extent that the corporation~~
19 ~~used that method on its most recent federal income tax report~~
20 ~~originally due on or before the date on which the corporation's~~
21 ~~franchise tax report is originally due.~~

22 ~~[(g) For purposes of this section, an approved Employee~~
23 ~~Stock Ownership Plan controlling a minority interest and voted~~
24 ~~through a single trustee shall be considered one shareholder.~~

25 ~~[(h) A corporation shall report its net taxable earned~~
26 ~~surplus based solely on its own financial condition. Consolidated~~
27 ~~reporting is prohibited.~~

1 ~~[(i) For purposes of this section, any person designated as~~
2 ~~an officer is presumed to be an officer if that person:~~

3 ~~[(1) holds an office created by the board of directors~~
4 ~~or under the corporate charter or bylaws; and~~

5 ~~[(2) has legal authority to bind the corporation with~~
6 ~~third parties by executing contracts or other legal documents.~~

7 ~~[(j) A corporation may rebut the presumption described in~~
8 ~~Subsection (i) that a person is an officer if it conclusively shows,~~
9 ~~through the person's job description or other documentation, that~~
10 ~~the person does not participate or have authority to participate in~~
11 ~~significant policy making aspects of the corporate operations.~~

12 ~~[(k) Dividends and interest received from federal~~
13 ~~obligations are not included in earned surplus or gross receipts~~
14 ~~for earned surplus purposes.~~

15 ~~[(l) In this section:~~

16 ~~[(1) "Federal obligations" means:~~

17 ~~[(A) stocks and other direct obligations of, and~~
18 ~~obligations unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States~~
19 ~~government and United States government agencies; and~~

20 ~~[(B) direct obligations of a United States~~
21 ~~government-sponsored agency.~~

22 ~~[(2) "Obligation" means any bond, debenture,~~
23 ~~security, mortgage-backed security, pass-through certificate, or~~
24 ~~other evidence of indebtedness of the issuing entity. The term does~~
25 ~~not include a deposit, a repurchase agreement, a loan, a lease, a~~
26 ~~participation in a loan or pool of loans, a loan collateralized by~~
27 ~~an obligation of a United States government agency, or a loan~~

1 ~~guaranteed by a United States government agency.~~

2 ~~[(3) "United States government" means any department~~
3 ~~or ministry of the federal government, including a federal reserve~~
4 ~~bank. The term does not include a state or local government, a~~
5 ~~commercial enterprise owned wholly or partly by the United States~~
6 ~~government, or a local governmental entity or commercial enterprise~~
7 ~~whose obligations are guaranteed by the United States government.~~

8 ~~[(4) "United States government agency" means an~~
9 ~~instrumentality of the United States government whose obligations~~
10 ~~are fully and explicitly guaranteed as to the timely payment of~~
11 ~~principal and interest by the full faith and credit of the United~~
12 ~~States government. The term includes the Government National~~ 13 ~~Mortgage Association, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the~~
14 ~~Federal Housing Administration, the Farmers Home Administration,~~
15 ~~the Export-Import Bank, the Overseas Private Investment~~
16 ~~Corporation, the Commodity Credit Corporation, the Small Business~~
17 ~~Administration, and any successor agency.~~

18 ~~[(5) "United States government-sponsored agency"~~
19 ~~means an agency originally established or chartered by the United~~
20 ~~States government to serve public purposes specified by the United~~
21 ~~States Congress but whose obligations are not explicitly guaranteed~~
22 ~~by the full faith and credit of the United States government. The~~
23 ~~term includes the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the~~ 24 ~~Federal National Mortgage Association, the Farm Credit System, the~~ 25 ~~Federal Home Loan Bank System, the Student Loan Marketing~~
26 ~~Association, and any successor agency.~~

27 ~~[Sec. 171.111. TEMPORARY CREDIT ON NET TAXABLE EARNED~~

1 ~~SURPLUS. (a) Not later than March 1, 1992, a corporation may~~
2 ~~notify the comptroller in writing of its intent to preserve its~~
3 ~~right to take a credit in an amount allowed by this section on the~~
4 ~~tax due on net taxable earned surplus. The comptroller may not~~
5 ~~grant an extension. The corporation may thereafter elect to claim~~
6 ~~the credit for the current year and future year at or before the~~
7 ~~original due date of any report due after January 1, 1992, until the~~
8 ~~corporation revokes the election or this section expires, whichever~~
9 ~~is earlier. A corporation may claim the credit for not more than 20~~
10 ~~consecutive privilege periods beginning with the first report due~~
11 ~~under this chapter after January 1, 1992. A corporation may make~~ 12 ~~only one election under this section and the election may not be~~
13 ~~conveyed, assigned, or transferred to another entity.~~

14 ~~[(b) The credit allowed under this section for any privilege~~
15 ~~period is computed by:~~

16 ~~[(1) determining the amount, as of the end of the~~
17 ~~corporation's accounting year ending in 1991, that is the~~
18 ~~difference between the basis used for financial accounting purposes~~
19 ~~and the basis used for federal income tax purposes of an asset or a~~
20 ~~liability that at some future date will reverse;~~

21 ~~[(2) apportioning the amount determined under~~
22 ~~Subdivision (1) to this state in the same manner earned surplus is~~
23 ~~apportioned under Section 171.106(b) or (c), as applicable, on the~~ 24 ~~first report due on or after January 1, 1992;~~

25 ~~[(3) multiplying the amount determined under~~ 26 ~~Subdivision (2) by five percent; and~~

27 ~~[(4) multiplying the amount determined under~~

1 ~~Subdivision (3) by the tax rate prescribed by Section~~
2 ~~171.002(a)(2).~~

3 ~~[(c) In computing the amount under Subsection (b)(1), the~~
4 ~~corporation may not consider differences that result from deferred~~
5 ~~investment tax credits, allowances for funds used during~~
6 ~~construction, or any other timing difference for which a deferred~~
7 ~~tax liability is not required under generally accepted accounting~~
8 ~~principles.~~

9 ~~[(d) After making the election under Subsection (a) the~~
10 ~~corporation must, for purposes of computing its taxable capital~~
11 ~~under this chapter, use the same accounting methods under generally~~
12 ~~accepted accounting principles to account for the assets and~~
13 ~~liabilities that determine the amount of the credit that the~~
14 ~~corporation uses to compute the credit. Notwithstanding Section~~
15 ~~171.109(c), if a corporation changes an accounting method for an~~
16 ~~asset or liability that determines, in whole or in part, the amount~~
17 ~~of the credit during the period the election is in effect, the~~ 18 ~~election is automatically revoked.~~

19 ~~[(e) A corporation that notifies the comptroller of its~~ 20 ~~intent to preserve its right to take a credit allowed by this~~
21 ~~section shall submit with its notice of intent a statement of the~~
22 ~~amount determined under Subsection (b)(1). The comptroller may~~
23 ~~request that the corporation submit in the annual report for each~~
24 ~~succeeding privilege period in which the corporation is eligible to~~
25 ~~take a credit information relating to the amount determined under~~ 26 ~~Subsection (b)(1). The corporation shall submit in the form and~~
27 ~~content the comptroller requires any information relating to the~~

1 ~~assets and liabilities that determine the amount of the credit, the~~
2 ~~amount determined under Subsection (b)(1), or any other matter~~
3 ~~relevant to the computation of the credit for which the corporation~~
4 ~~is eligible.~~

5 ~~[(f) A credit allowed under this section may not be carried~~
6 ~~forward or backward or used to create a business loss carryover~~
7 ~~under Section 171.110.~~

8 ~~[(g) A corporation may not use a credit allowed under this~~
9 ~~section in connection with the computation of the corporation's tax~~
10 ~~on net taxable capital.~~

11 ~~[(h) In addition to the tax imposed by Section 171.002, an~~ 12 ~~additional tax is imposed on each corporation during each year the~~ 13 ~~corporation takes the credit allowed under this section. The~~ 14 ~~additional tax is equal to 0.2 percent of the corporation's net~~
15 ~~taxable capital per year of privilege period.~~

16 ~~[(i) This section expires September 1, 2012.~~

17 ~~[Sec. 171.112. GROSS RECEIPTS FOR TAXABLE CAPITAL. (a) For~~ 18 ~~purposes of this section, "gross receipts" means all revenues that~~
19 ~~would be recognized annually under a generally accepted accounting~~
20 ~~principles method of accounting, without deduction for the cost of~~
21 ~~property sold, materials used, labor performed, or other costs~~
22 ~~incurred, unless otherwise specifically provided in this chapter.~~

23 ~~[(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a~~
24 ~~corporation must compute gross receipts in accordance with~~
25 ~~generally accepted accounting principles. If generally accepted~~
26 ~~accounting principles are unsettled or do not specify an accounting~~
27 ~~practice for a particular purpose related to the computation of~~

1 ~~gross receipts, the comptroller by rule may establish rules to~~
2 ~~specify the applicable accounting practice.~~

3 ~~[(c) A corporation whose taxable capital is less than $1~~
4 ~~million may report its gross receipts according to the method used~~
5 ~~in the corporation's most recent federal income tax return~~
6 ~~originally due on or before the date on which the corporation's~~
7 ~~franchise tax report is originally due. In determining if taxable~~
8 ~~capital is less than $1 million, the corporation shall apply the~~
9 ~~methods the corporation used in computing that federal income tax~~
10 ~~return unless another method is required under this chapter.~~

11 ~~[(d) A corporation shall report its gross receipts based~~
12 ~~solely on its own financial condition. Consolidated reporting is~~
13 ~~prohibited.~~

14 ~~[(e) Unless the provisions of Section 171.111 apply due to~~
15 ~~an election under that section, a corporation may not change its~~
16 ~~accounting methods used to calculate gross receipts more often than~~
17 ~~once every four years without the express written consent of the~~
18 ~~comptroller. A change in accounting methods is not justified~~
19 ~~solely because it results in a reduction of tax liability.~~

20 ~~[(f) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter, a~~
21 ~~corporation subject to the tax imposed by this chapter shall use~~
22 ~~double entry bookkeeping to account for all transactions that~~
23 ~~affect the computation of that tax.~~

24 ~~[(g) Chapter 141 does not apply to this chapter.~~

25 ~~[(h) Except as otherwise provided by this section, a~~
26 ~~corporation shall use the same accounting methods to apportion its~~
27 ~~taxable capital as it used to compute its taxable capital.]~~

1 Sec. 171.1121. GROSS RECEIPTS FOR MARGIN [~~TAXABLE EARNED~~
2 ~~SURPLUS~~]. (a) For purposes of this section, "gross receipts" means
3 all revenues reportable by a taxable entity [~~corporation~~] on its
4 federal tax return, without deduction for the cost of property
5 sold, materials used, labor performed, or other costs incurred,
6 unless otherwise specifically provided in this chapter. [~~"Gross~~
7 ~~receipts" does not include revenues that are not included in~~
8 ~~taxable earned surplus. For example, Schedule C special deductions~~
9 ~~and any amounts subtracted from reportable federal taxable income~~
10 ~~under Section 171.110(a)(1) are not included in taxable earned~~
11 ~~surplus and therefore are not considered gross receipts.~~]

12 (b) Except as otherwise provided by this section, a taxable
13 entity [~~corporation~~] shall use the same accounting methods to 14 apportion margin [~~taxable earned surplus~~] as used in computing
15 reportable federal taxable income.

16 (c) A taxable entity [~~A corporation shall report its gross~~
17 ~~receipts based solely on its own financial condition. Consolidated~~
18 ~~reporting is prohibited.~~

19 [~~(d) Unless the provisions of Section 171.111 apply due to~~
20 ~~an election under that section, a corporation~~] may not change its 21 accounting methods used to calculate gross receipts more often than
22 once every four years without the express written consent of the
23 comptroller. A change in accounting methods is not justified
24 solely because it results in a reduction of tax liability.

25 [~~(e) A corporation's share of a partnership's gross receipts~~
26 ~~that is included in the corporation's federal taxable income must~~ 27 ~~be used in computing the corporation's gross receipts under this~~

1 ~~section. Unless otherwise provided by this chapter, a corporation~~
2 ~~may not deduct costs incurred from the corporation's share of a~~
3 ~~partnership's gross receipts. The gross receipts must be~~
4 ~~apportioned as though the corporation directly earned them.~~

5 ~~[Sec. 171.113. ALTERNATE METHOD OF DETERMINING TAXABLE~~
6 ~~CAPITAL AND GROSS RECEIPTS FOR CERTAIN CORPORATIONS. (a) This~~ 7 ~~section applies only to:~~

8 ~~[(1) a corporation organized as a close corporation~~
9 ~~under Part 12, Texas Business Corporation Act, that has not more~~
10 ~~than 35 shareholders;~~

11 ~~[(2) a foreign corporation organized under the close~~
12 ~~corporation law of another state that has not more than 35~~
13 ~~shareholders; and~~

14 ~~[(3) an S corporation as that term is defined by~~
15 ~~Section 1361, Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. Section~~ 16 ~~1361).~~

17 ~~[(b) A corporation to which this section applies may elect~~
18 ~~to compute its surplus, assets, debts, and gross receipts according~~
19 ~~to the method the corporation uses to report its federal income tax~~
20 ~~instead of as provided by Sections 171.109(b) and (g) and Section~~
21 ~~171.112(b). This section does not affect the application of the~~
22 ~~other subsections of Sections 171.109 and 171.112 and other~~
23 ~~provisions of this chapter to a corporation making the election.~~

24 ~~[(c) The comptroller may adopt rules as necessary to specify~~
25 ~~the reporting requirements for corporations to which this section~~
26 ~~applies.~~

27 ~~[(d) This section does not apply to a subsidiary corporation~~

1 ~~unless it applies to the parent corporation of the subsidiary.~~

2 ~~[(c) The election under Subsection (b) becomes effective~~
3 ~~when written notice of the election is received by the comptroller~~
4 ~~from the corporation. An election under Subsection (b) must be~~
5 ~~postmarked not later than the due date for the electing~~
6 ~~corporation's franchise tax report to which the election applies.]~~

7 SECTION 4. Subchapter D, Chapter 171, Tax Code, is amended
8 to read as follows:

9 SUBCHAPTER D. PAYMENT OF TAX

10 Sec. 171.151. PRIVILEGE PERIOD COVERED BY TAX. The 11 franchise tax shall be paid for each of the following:

12 (1) an initial period beginning on the taxable
13 entity's [~~corporation's~~] beginning date and ending on the day
14 before the first anniversary of the beginning date;

15 (2) a second period beginning on the first anniversary
16 of the beginning date and ending on December 31 following that date;
17 and

18 (3) after the initial and second periods have expired,
19 a regular annual period beginning each year on January 1 and ending
20 the following December 31.

21 Sec. 171.152. DATE ON WHICH PAYMENT IS DUE. (a) Payment of 22 the tax covering the initial period is due within 90 days after the 23 date that the initial period ends or, if applicable, within 91 days
24 after the date of the merger.

25 (b) Payment of the tax covering the second period is due on 26 the same date as the tax covering the initial period.

27 (c) Payment of the tax covering the regular annual period is

1 due May 15, of each year after the beginning of the regular annual
2 period. However, if the first anniversary of the taxable entity's
3 ~~[corporation's]~~ beginning date is after October 3 and before
4 January 1, the payment of the tax covering the first regular annual 5 period is due on the same date as the tax covering the initial
6 period.

7 ~~[Sec. 171.153. BUSINESS ON WHICH TAX ON NET TAXABLE CAPITAL~~
8 ~~IS BASED. (a) The tax covering the initial period is reported on~~
9 ~~the initial report and is based on the business done by the~~
10 ~~corporation during the period beginning on the corporation's~~
11 ~~beginning date and:~~

12 ~~[(1) ending on the last accounting period ending date~~
13 ~~that is at least six months after the beginning date and at least 60~~
14 ~~days before the original due date of the initial report; or~~

15 ~~[(2) if there is no such period ending date in~~
16 ~~Subdivision (1) of this subsection, then ending on the day that is~~
17 ~~the last day of a calendar month and that is nearest to the end of~~
18 ~~the corporation's first year of business; or~~

19 ~~[(3) ending on the day after the merger occurs, for the~~ 20 ~~survivor of a merger which occurs after the day on which the tax is~~
21 ~~based in Subdivision (1) or Subdivision (2), whichever is~~
22 ~~applicable, of Subsection (a) and before January 1, of the year an~~ 23 ~~initial report is due by the survivor.~~

24 ~~[(b) The tax covering the second period is reported on the~~
25 ~~initial report and is based on the same business on which the tax~~
26 ~~covering the initial period is based and is to be prorated based on~~ 27 ~~the length of the second period.~~

1 ~~[(c) The tax covering the regular annual period is based on~~
2 ~~the business done by the corporation during its last accounting~~
3 ~~period that ends in the year before the year in which the tax is due,~~
4 ~~unless a corporation is the survivor of a merger which occurs~~
5 ~~between the end of its last accounting period in the year before the~~
6 ~~report year and January 1 of the report year, in which case the tax~~
7 ~~will be based on the financial condition of the surviving~~
8 ~~corporation for the 12-month period ending on the day after the~~
9 ~~merger. However, if the first anniversary of the corporation's~~
10 ~~beginning date is after October 3 and before January 1, the tax~~
11 ~~covering the first regular annual period is based on the same~~
12 ~~business on which the tax covering the initial period is based and~~
13 ~~is reported on the initial report.~~

14 ~~[Sec. 171.1531. CREDIT FOR SURVIVOR OF MERGER. (a) "Credit~~
15 ~~period" means the period from the date of the merger or the date the~~
16 ~~survivor was required to pay franchise tax, whichever is later,~~
17 ~~through the end of the privilege period for which tax was actually~~ 18 ~~paid by the nonsurvivors.~~

19 ~~[(b) The survivor of a merger is entitled to a credit~~
20 ~~against the tax computed on its net taxable capital under Section~~
21 ~~171.002(b)(1) in the amount of the franchise tax computed on net~~
22 ~~taxable capital paid by the nonsurvivors for the credit period,~~
23 ~~provided the tax computed on net taxable capital paid by the~~ 24 ~~survivor for the credit period is based on the survivor's financial~~ 25 ~~condition after the merger. Only a survivor that is subject to the~~
26 ~~franchise tax is entitled to the merger credit. The merger credit~~
27 ~~shall be allocated among survivors based on net taxable capital~~

1 ~~reported, and as provided by Section 171.153.~~

2 ~~[(c) The credit will be limited to the lesser of the amount~~
3 ~~of tax on net taxable capital paid for the credit period by the~~
4 ~~survivor or by the nonsurvivors.]~~

5 Sec. 171.1532. BUSINESS ON WHICH TAX ON NET TAXABLE MARGIN
6 ~~[EARNED SURPLUS]~~ IS BASED. (a) The tax covering the privilege
7 periods included on the initial report~~[, as required by Section~~
8 ~~171.153,]~~ is based on the business done by the taxable entity
9 ~~[corporation]~~ during the period beginning on the taxable entity's
10 ~~[corporation's]~~ beginning date and:

11 (1) ending on the last accounting period ending date
12 that is at least 60 days before the original due date of the initial 13 report; or

14 (2) if there is no such period ending date in
15 Subdivision (1) ~~[of this subsection]~~, then ending on the day that is 16 the last day of a calendar month and that is nearest to the end of 17 the taxable entity's ~~[corporation's]~~ first year of business.

18 (b) The tax covering the regular annual period, other than a
19 regular annual period included on the initial report, is based on 20 the business done by the taxable entity ~~[corporation]~~ during the 21 period beginning with the day after the last date upon which ~~[net]~~
22 taxable margin ~~[earned surplus]~~ on a previous report was based and 23 ending with its last accounting period ending date for federal
24 income tax purposes in the year before the year in which the report
25 is originally due.

26 Sec. 171.154. PAYMENT TO COMPTROLLER. A taxable entity
27 ~~[corporation]~~ on which a tax is imposed by this chapter shall pay

1 the tax to the comptroller.

2 Sec. 171.158. PAYMENT BY FOREIGN TAXABLE ENTITY
3 [~~CORPORATION~~] BEFORE WITHDRAWAL FROM STATE. (a) Except as
4 provided by Subsection (b) [~~of this section~~], a foreign taxable
5 entity [~~corporation~~] holding a registration or certificate of 6 authority to do business in this state may withdraw from doing
7 business in this state by filing a certificate of withdrawal with 8 the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall file the 9 certificate of withdrawal as provided by law.

10 (b) The foreign taxable entity [~~corporation~~] may not
11 withdraw from doing business in this state unless it has paid,
12 before filing the certificate of withdrawal, any tax or penalty
13 imposed by this chapter on the taxable entity [~~corporation~~].

14 SECTION 5. Subchapter E, Chapter 171, Tax Code, is amended
15 to read as follows:

16 SUBCHAPTER E. REPORTS AND RECORDS

17 Sec. 171.201. INITIAL REPORT. (a) Except as provided by
18 Section 171.2022, a taxable entity [~~corporation~~] on which the 19 franchise tax is imposed shall file an initial report with the 20 comptroller containing:

21 (1) information showing the financial condition of the 22 taxable entity [~~corporation~~] on the day that is the last day of a
23 calendar month and that is nearest to the end of the taxable
24 entity's [~~corporation's~~] first year of business;

25 (2) the name and address of:

26 (A) each officer, [~~and~~] director, and manager of 27 the taxable entity [~~corporation~~];

1 (B) for a limited partnership, each general
2 partner;

3 (C) for a general partnership or limited
4 liability partnership, each managing partner or, if there is not a
5 managing partner, each partner; or

6 (D) for a trust, each trustee;

7 (3) the name and address of the agent of the taxable
8 entity [~~corporation~~] designated under Section 171.354; and

9 (4) other information required by the comptroller.

10 (b) The taxable entity [~~corporation~~] shall file the report
11 on or before the date the payment is due under [~~Subsection (a) of~~]
12 Section 171.152(a) [~~171.152~~].

13 Sec. 171.202. ANNUAL REPORT. (a) Except as provided by
14 Section 171.2022, a taxable entity [~~corporation~~] on which the 15 franchise tax is imposed shall file an annual report with the 16 comptroller containing:

17 (1) financial information of the taxable entity
18 [~~corporation~~] necessary to compute the tax under this chapter;

19 (2) the name and address of each officer and director
20 of the taxable entity [~~corporation~~];

21 (3) the name and address of the agent of the taxable
22 entity [~~corporation~~] designated under Section 171.354; and

23 (4) other information required by the comptroller.

24 (b) The taxable entity [~~corporation~~] shall file the report
25 before May 16 of each year after the beginning of the regular annual 26 period. The report shall be filed on forms supplied by the 27 comptroller.

1 (c) The comptroller shall grant an extension of time to a
